

Softweb Tech Solutions Logo

I began the logo making process by drafting the design using the Paint application.

After creating a rough draft of the logo, I used Adobe Photoshop to refine the design and add additional elements and color options.

I created multiple versions of the logo, including horizontal versions, in order to have more options to choose from and to ensure that the logo could be used in different orientations.

Final Output

